

ERIC COLEMAN

525 40TH AVE NORTH, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE 37209

512-740-9151

BIOLOGIST

QUALIFICATIONS PROFILE

- Carried out sample gathering and analysis of various pond and lake characteristics for clients, partners and home owner associations
- Utilized Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint), Adobe Premier and Photoshop, various academic databases to build reports for clients showcasing various aspects of pond ecology, provide fish stocking recommendations, provide integrated pond management strategies
- Vast knowledge of chemistry and related laboratory practices helped facility efficient and effective sampling practices
- Used communication skills to address clients and provide them with important information in an effective way that is easy to digest
- Completed data entry for multiple databases used to track clients pond/lake records

EDUCATION

University Of Arkansas-Fayetteville

Bachelor of Arts in Biology, Date of Completion: May 2019

Non-Resident Tuition Scholarship

Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity | Cycling Club | Biological science Club

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Multifaceted, dynamic, and detail-oriented professional pursuing a challenging role as a biologist to further enhance and utilize knowledge, skills, and abilities honed from hands-on research experience, and strong educational background
- Completed course work in the fields of biology, chemistry, wildlife management, animal and plant physiology, population and quantitative genetics, gene and cell replication, herpetology, ichthyology, and mammalogy
- Adept in biological studies and practices used to carry out various research projects
- Studied and obtained certifications and licenses from Tennessee and Kentucky Department of Agriculture and the Tennessee Wildlife Resource

WORK HISTORY

Jones Fish Hatcheries, Nashville, TN

Aquatic Biologist

May 2019-Present

- Cut personal chemical costs by 40% across the board by improving previous practices to better suite work in Tennessee and Kentucky
- Sampled and analyzed over 100 water, sediment, and fish samples to help calculate and report overall pond/lake health as well as to provide management strategies
- Helped train new employees to collect samples, map ponds/lakes, and provide knowledge of fountain repair
- Regularly communicated and coordinated with clients, manufacturers and home owners associations
- Utilized problem solving skills to accomplish tasks and complete deadlines even with unforeseen complications
- Became certified to apply chemical and stock fish in Tennessee and Kentucky

Avila Soccer, Austin, TX

Head Soccer Trainer

Summer 2014 | 2015 | 2016 | 2017 | 2018

- Led and structured soccer training sessions for various age levels toddlers-college
- Engaged with parents and guardians on a regular bases regarding progress of the players and sold training packages
- Helped direct and supervise volunteers during training sessions

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Volunteer | Sequoyah Trail Love 2018

- Helped repair and restore local mountain bike trails.
- Delegated and divided tasks to increase productivity

Volunteer | Dickson Street Clean 2017

- Helped pick up trash and tidy up the main street in town.